Coleman® LX Series TF3 Air Conditioners

13 SEER/1.5-5 TONS

Legendary Durability

Coleman® LX Series Air Conditioning Systems are built with time-tested craftsmanship. Engineered to exceed even our legendary standards for consistent comfort and rugged reliability, these units use proven technology that can withstand the toughest conditions. That's why our dependable Coleman® Air Conditioners feature stronger warranties than ever before – ensuring comfort that lasts, year after year.

With reliability-enhancing features including long-lasting powder-coat paint and a tube-in-fin evaporator coil with copper tubing, 13 SEER Coleman® LX Series TF3 Split System Air Conditioners are well suited for climates in Canada and the northern regions of the United States. Our extreme, accelerated testing and extensive field trials further demonstrate our commitment to making LX Series Air Conditioners the durable, low-maintenance solution that lives up to the Coleman® HVAC name.
